GOVERNOR OTTER WELCOMES NEW FISH AND GAME DIRECTOR

(BOISE) - Governor C.L. "Butch" Otter issued the follow statement today in reaction to the Idaho Fish and Game Commission's announcement that it has selected Virgil Moore, a current deputy director at the Idaho Department of Fish Game, to become the agency's new director.

"I want to thank Cal Groen for the outstanding job he did as director of the Idaho Department of Fish and Game over the past four years. He set a high standard within the department for collaborating with a broad base of stakeholders on fish and wildlife resource issues and their impacts on Idaho's economy. Virgil has some big shoes to fill. But given his long experience at the department, I believe he can ably handle these new responsibilities. I look forward to working with him."
