2012 IDAHO CAREGIVERS DAY

WHEREAS, we recognize that it is the caregivers of the world who provide the crucial services and care to those who are unable to care for themselves; and

WHEREAS, these individuals often go above and beyond their normal job descriptions to provide professional, caring services to enhance the quality of their clients' and/or patients' lives; and

WHEREAS, their work is often difficult and thankless; and

WHEREAS, these caregivers deserve our recognition and appreciation for their tireless efforts involving:

Heart – passion for the job and going the extra mile;

Dependability – punctual attendance and reliability;

Appearance – always professional and appropriate;

Accountability – ethics and honesty; and

WHEREAS, it is appropriate for the citizens of the State of Idaho to recognize and honor Angela Holton, the Certified Nursing Assistant chosen above all others to be named Caregiver of the Year for Idaho;

NOW, THEREFORE, I, C.L. "BUTCH" OTTER, Governor of the State of Idaho, do hereby proclaim May 19, 2012 to be in Idaho, and I encourage all to give thanks to the outstanding care these professional caregivers bring to our mothers and fathers, sisters and brothers, children and friends; because of their care, many of Idaho's citizens will find comfort and care that will contribute to a higher quality of life; I am confident there will be many acts of special recognition and tribute paid by all to the caregivers in their lives during this time and throughout the coming year as they show their gratitude and thanks for the great care and service given by the caregivers throughout the state of Idaho.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused to be affixed the Great Seal of the State of Idaho at the Capitol in Boise on this 19th day of May in the year of our Lord two thousand and twelve and of the Independence of the United States of America the two hundred thirty-sixth and of the Statehood of Idaho the one hundred twenty second.
