2012 NATIONAL CURVES DAY

WHEREAS, National Curves Day was initiated in celebration of National Women’s Health Week, May 13-19, to make health information and gym memberships more accessible to more women nationwide; and

WHEREAS, National Curves Day occurs each year on the Thursday following Mother’s Day during National Women’s Health Week; and

WHEREAS, National Curves Day is a celebration of women taking responsibility for their health and an opportunity for those who would like to:

- Visit a healthcare professional to receive regular checkups and preventive screenings;
- Get active;
- Eat healthy;
- Pay attention to mental health, including getting enough sleep and managing stress;
- Avoid unhealthy behaviors, such as smoking and not wearing a seatbelt or bicycle helmet; and

WHEREAS, National Curves Day recognizes all local citizens and organizations whose fundraising and awareness efforts have improved the lives of the women in our community; and

WHEREAS, Curves of Sandpoint has chosen Sandpoint, Idaho to officially launch its local efforts;

NOW, THEREFORE, I, C.L. “BUTCH” OTTER, Governor of the State of Idaho, do hereby proclaim May 17, 2012 to be in Idaho, and I urge all citizens to participate in the activities planned on this day.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused to be affixed the Great Seal of the State of Idaho at the Capitol in Boise on this 17th day of May in the year of our Lord two thousand and twelve and of the Independence of the United States of America the two hundred thirty-sixth and of the Statehood of Idaho the one hundred twenty second.
