State of Idaho

The Office of the Governor
Proclamation

State Capitol
Boise

WHEREAS, Idaho must develop a well-educated workforce for continued competitiveness and economic development; and

WHEREAS, according to the Georgetown University Center on Education and the Workforce, 68 percent of all jobs in Idaho will require postsecondary education and training beyond high school by 2020; and

WHEREAS, the State Board of Education set an ambitious goal that 60 percent of Idahoans between the ages of 25-34 will have a postsecondary degree or credential by 2020; and

WHEREAS, the State Board of Education's Direct Admissions initiative is providing all public high school seniors the opportunity to attend our state's public colleges and universities; and

WHEREAS, attending a post-secondary institution is an essential step in obtaining the knowledge and skills needed in the 21st century workforce; and

WHEREAS, Idaho students are encouraged to take advantage of available assistance and attend Idaho's colleges and universities so they can attain a postsecondary degree or credential; and

WHEREAS, Idaho high schools may participate in the Idaho College Application Week event;

NOW, THEREFORE, I, C.L. "BUTCH" OTTER, Governor of the State of Idaho, do hereby proclaim November 9-13, 2015 to be in Idaho.

COLLEGE APPLICATION WEEK

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused to be affixed the Great Seal of the State of Idaho at the Capitol in Boise on this 9th day of November, in the year of our Lord two thousand and fifteen and of the Independence of the United States of America the two hundred fortieth and of the Statehood of Idaho the one hundred twenty-sixth.

C.L. "BUTCH" OTTER
