

Executive Department
State of Idaho

The Office of the Governor
Proclamation

State Capitol
Boise

WHEREAS, ground water is a limited resource in Idaho; and

WHEREAS, clean abundant ground water is an essential resource for the citizens of Idaho; and

WHEREAS, ground water supplies approximately 95 percent of Idahoans with the water they use to meet their drinking water needs; and

WHEREAS, the agricultural community, private industry and businesses, and communities rely on large quantities of high-quality ground water for economic prosperity; and

WHEREAS, ground water can be vulnerable to contamination and degradation; and

WHEREAS, ground water and surface water can be interconnected, therefore degraded or reduced ground water supplies can adversely impact surface water uses including drinking water, recreation, irrigation and power generation; and

WHEREAS, ground water is one of Idaho's most precious natural resources, it is appropriate to set aside a special time to call upon all Idahoans, young and old, to learn about the importance of ground water in their lives and to learn how they can protect and conserve our precious ground water resource;

NOW, THEREFORE, I, C.L. "BUTCH" OTTER, Governor of the State of Idaho, do hereby proclaim the week of March 8th-14th, 2015 to be in Idaho.

GROUND WATER AWARENESS WEEK

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused to be affixed the Great Seal of the State of Idaho at the Capitol in Boise on this 8th day of March in the year of our Lord two thousand and fifteen and of the Independence of the United States of America the two hundred thirty-ninth and of the Statehood of Idaho the one hundred twenty-fifth.

C.L. "BUTCH" OTTER
GOVERNOR
