The Office of the Governor
Proclamation

State Capitol
Boise

College of Idaho Day

WHEREAS, the College of Idaho, founded and dedicated to the liberal arts by Dr. William Judson Boone in 1891, is the oldest private college in the state of Idaho; and

WHEREAS, the College of Idaho has a tradition of educating many of Idaho's most accomplished graduates, including six Rhodes Scholars, three Marshall Scholars, ten Truman and Goldwater Scholars and two Idaho governors; and

WHEREAS, the College of Idaho employs a dedicated and inspirational faculty that features three of the past five Carnegie Foundation Idaho Professor of the Year award winners, including 2010 winner Dr. Rochelle Johnson; and

WHEREAS, the College of Idaho fosters a close-knit community where students enjoy small class sizes, a vibrant and diverse population, a competitive NAIA athletics program and a beautiful residential campus; and

WHEREAS, the College of Idaho created its distinctive PEAK curriculum, which offers 26 majors and 55 minors and challenges students to attain competencies in the four knowledge peaks – humanities, natural sciences, social sciences and a professional field – enabling them to graduate with an academic major and three undergraduate minors in four years; and

WHEREAS, the College of Idaho's students, faculty, staff, alumni, parents and friends are actively engaged in both the professional world and community service in the City of Caldwell, the Treasure Valley, the state of Idaho and around the world; and

WHEREAS, the College of Idaho set an enrollment record with 1,055 students for the 2010-2011 school year; and

WHEREAS, the College of Idaho continues to live its mission with an eye toward the future by working to create the first endowed chair in Judaic studies in the Intermountain West, increasing its endowment through the Advance the Legacy campaign and upgrading its academic buildings and Coyote athletic facilities on campus;

NOW, THEREFORE, I, C.L. "BUTCH" OTTER Governor of the State of Idaho do hereby proclaim February 22, 2011

COLLEGE OF IDAHO DAY

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused to be affixed the Great Seal of the State of Idaho at the Capitol in Boise on this 22nd day of February in the year of our Lord two thousand and eleven and of the Independence of the United States of America the two hundred thirty-fifth and of the Statehood of Idaho the one hundred twenty-first.
