GOVERNOR OTTER AND FIRST LADY HOST "TRICK OR TREAT" AT THE CAPITOL

(BOISE) – Governor C. L. "Butch" Otter and First Lady Lori Otter invite Idaho's children and their families to a free "Trick or Treat" Halloween event on the front steps of the Idaho Statehouse on Saturday, October 31st from 4-7 p.m.

The Governor and First Lady will personally hand out Halloween candy donated by the Wal-Mart store on State Street in Boise. They also will be giving toothbrushes provided by the Idaho State Dental Association, dental floss from Blue Cross of Idaho and toothpaste from Morning Star Dental. The candy, toothbrushes, toothpaste and floss will be distributed as long as supplies last.

Throughout the event, the First Lady also will be handing out copies of her newly revised book "Ida Explores the Capitol." It features a treasure hunt through the Capitol to find the "Jewel of Idaho." The book is dedicated to all the people who maintain the Capitol every day all those involved in the Capitol renovation.

The Idaho Meth Project will be handing out information at the event, and radio station 107.9 Lite FM will be broadcasting live.

All Idahoans are welcome to come see the fall decorations donated by The Farmstead in Meridian and join the Governor and First Lady as they support and have fun with Idaho children at this Halloween celebration.

The Idaho State Capitol building is located at 700 W. Jefferson Street in downtown Boise.
